

Designated as a Community Futures Development Corporation in 2001, NADF Community Futures offers information, advice, and resources to small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) to start, expand or maintain their business. Our team can assist you with your business plan, budgeting, marketing and other processes.

In addition to one-on-one assistance, NADF Community Futures offers tailored and custom-tailored workshops and seminars to provide information and training on such topics as financial literacy, business planning, marketing, business management and customer service.

With support received from FedNor, NADF Community Futures provides these services FREE to the following thirty-three (33) First Nations.
